THE

TRIALS

OF ALL THE

FELON PRISONERS,

Tried, Caſt, and Condemned,

AT

Juſtice Hall, in the Old Baily.

WITH THE

REMARKABLE TRIALS OF

Of Timothy Bryan, James Barry, and ſevera others for the Murder of Duncan Grant, a Police Officer.

May 7. 1799

PRICE ONE PENNY.

THE TRIALS, &c.

ON Wednesday, May 7th. 1799, the sessions began at Justice Hall, in the Old Bailey, before Baron Perryn, Judge Grose and the Hon. Lord Mayor, when the following prisoners were tried.

Edward Wilson was indicted on the oaths of William Love and others, for stealing a piece of sheeting, value 40s. the property of John and James Swan, partners. The prisoner was found guilty of privately stealing.

Transported.

John Bevan and Richard Mil's were tried on the oaths of Martha Jones and others, for aſſaulting her on the king's highway, and putting her in fear and taking from her perſon a ſilver wate , and a 20s. Bank Note, and other articles, the property of the ſaid Ma tha Jones.

Guilty Death.

Mathew Stinſon was tried for aſſaulting John Field on the king's highway, putting him in fear, and taking from his perſon a pocket-book containing a two pound Bank Note, half a guinea and ſome ſilver, his property, of which crime he was found guilty.

Guilty.

Suſannah Harriſon and Thomas Carter weretried for committing a burglary in the dwelling houſe of Daniel Wade, and ſtealing ſix ſilver tea-ſpoons and ſeveral other articles his property, Tho. Carter acquitted and Suſannah Harriſon found Guilty Death.

Edmund Birkett was tried on the oaths of Joseph Benhacock and others, for stealing a draft or order, dated March 16, 1799 for the payment of 189l. the property of the said Joseph Benhacock and Haim Azuley. Guilty.

Thomas Hayley was charged on the oaths of Christopher Daniel Hayes, and another, with stealing two pieces of painted floor cloath, value 8l the property of the said Christopher Daniel Hayes and James Hayes.

John Honey was indicted on the oath of William Rufford with assisting James Turnbull to escape from the offices of justice; well knowing he had committed a felony in stealing from his Majesty's Mint in the Tower 1000 guineas and upwards.

George Evans for forging a certain Bill of exchange for 28l. 16s. with intent to defraud George Daubeny Esq. and Co. &c.

Also with having forged another Bill of exchange for the sum of 15l. with intent to defraud the above named persons.

Moses Assur Getting was indicted for forging a certain bill of exchange, for the sum of 3071. 5s. 6d. sterling, bearing date New York, 12th of March, 1799, purporting to have been drawn by one Samuel Corp, and to have been directed to Messrs. William Rowlett and Co. Merchants in London, for the payment thereof, with intent to defraud John Henry Schnedier.

Guilty

Mary Joice and Ann Ryan were indicted, on the oaths of Edward Rogers and others with putting off counterfeited milled money, namely, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, at a lower value than the current coin of this realm.

Guilty

John Smith was tried for ſtealing a roll of carpetting value 4l. from the ſhop of George Adams.

Humphry Cockran was indicted on the oaths of Joſeph Pybus and others, for ſtealing twenty yards of woolen cloth, the property of the ſaid Joſeph Pybus.

Henry Burton was indicted on the oath of James Lomax with ſtealing two packages of flannel his property, value 60l.

Detained on the name of Henry Burton, alias. Henry Barnett on the oaths of the ſaid James Lomax and others, with ſtealing in the county of Lancaſter two other bales of flannels, value 69l. 12s. 6d. the property of the ſaid James Lomax.

Samuel Hodgkin was indicted on the oaths of Edward Carrol and other for ſtealing a tin caſe containing two ten pound Bank Notes, the property of the ſaid Edward Carrol.

Guilty Death.

Thomas Melſam was charged on the oaths of Richard Erſcott and others with breaking into the dwelling houſe of the ſaid Richard Erſcott, and ſtealidg therein four legs of mutton and other articles, his property.

William Hodges was indicted on the oaths of James Wright and others, with ſtealing a box containing ſhaw's and other things, value 12l. and upwards, the property of the ſaid James Wright.

Guilty Death.

George Mills and Ann Mills were tried for robbing William Goodliffe of a ſilver watch, the woman acquitted Mills.

Richard Cadman for ſtealing lead, Sarah Mann for ſtealing two ſhirts, and James Kendrick for ſtealing a bed quilt, were found Guilty.

Timothy Bryan, James Barry, Patrick Holland, Daniel Driscol George Romley, Cornelius Donohough, John M'Carty, John Sullivan, Hannah Bryan, Eleanor Hern, and Joseph Hardy.

After a long trial, which lasted nearly the whole day, three of the above were found guilty, and received sentence to be executed on Monday next.

FINIS.